

FEARNOMUSIC AND YU PRESENT

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF JOHN CAGE

FRIDAY, 17 FEBRUARY 2012

To celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of American composer John Cage (1912-1992), FearNoMusic and YU will present a program that includes compositions Cage created over the span of almost a half-century, from his early non-musical sound works to his later experiments in indeterminacy and improvisation.

The program will consist of ten compositions by Cage performed live throughout YU's historic Yale Union Laundry building. FearNoMusic and guest artists will perform "4'33"," "Fourteen," and "Litany for the Whale," and up to 20 harpists will perform "Postcard from Heaven." Early in the evening, Carlos Kalmar, Music Director of the Oregon Symphony, will deliver Cage's "Lecture on Nothing."
